

1. Stirrings of Imperialism

a. The New Manifest Destiny

i. Fears of closing of the frontier

ii. Trade increases

iii. Henry Cabot Lodge

iv. John W. Burgess

v. Alfred Thayer Mahan The Influence of Sea Power Upon History

b. Hemispheric Hegemony

i. Pan American Conference

ii. Venezuela

c. Hawaii and Samoa

i. Hawaii & Queen Liliuokalani

ii. Samoa

2. War With Spain

a. Controversy over Cuba

i. Cuban Revolt

ii. De Lome Letter

iii. USS Maine

iv. War

b. "A Splendid Little War" 1898

i. _____ killed in battle

ii. _____ perished of disease: malaria, dysentery and typhoid

iii. Difficulties fighting in Cuba

iv. African Americans in the War

c. Seizing the Philippines

- d. The Battle for Cuba
 - i. Rough Riders

 - ii. End of the war

 - iii. Armistice Provisions

- e. Puerto Rico and the United States
 - i. Foraker Act

 - ii. Jones Act

 - iii. Sugar Economy

- f. The Debate over the Philippines
 - i. McKinley & the Philippines

 - ii. Treaty of Paris 1898

 - iii. Anti-Imperialist League

 - iv. Imperialists

 - v. Election of 1900

Note political cartoon on page 545

3. The Republic as Empire

- a. Governing the Colonies
 - i. Hawaii, Alaska, & Puerto Rico

 - ii. Cuba and the Platt Amendment

- b. The Philippine War

- c. The Open Door
 - i. Open Door Notes – John Hay

 - ii. Boxer Rebellion

- d. A Modern Military System