Chapter 9 – Jacksonian America

Name:_____

- 1. The Rise of Mass Politics
 - a. The Emergence of Andrew Jackson
 - i. Background
 - ii. War of 1812 and The Battle of New Orleans
 - b. Expanding Democracy
 - i. Broadening the Franchise
 - ii. The Dorr Rebellion
 - iii. Democratic reforms (e.g., The South)
 - c. Tocqueville and Democracy in America
 - i. Tocqueville's assessment

- d. The Legitimization of Party
 - i. Change in public perception
 - ii. The Second Party System
- e. "President of the Common Man"
 - i. Democratic Party philosophy
 - ii. The Spoils System

iii. Limited Nature of Democratic Reform

- 2. "Our Federal Union"
 - a. Calhoun and Nullification
 - i. Theory of Nullification
 - b. The Rise of Van Buren
 - i. Van Buren's Growing Influence
 - ii. "Kitchen Cabinet"
 - iii. Peggy Eaton Affair
 - c. The Webster-Hayne Debate
 - i. States' Rights vs. National Power
 - ii. President Jackson's position

d. The Nullification Crisis

- i. South Carolina's reaction to the "Tariff of Abominations"
- ii. Jackson's response
- iii. Compromise
- 3. The Removal of The Indians
 - a. White Attitudes Toward the Tribes
 - i. "Noble savages" vs. "Savages"

b. The Black Hawk War

- i. The Old Northwest
- ii. Sauk and Fox Indians Defeated
- c. The "Five Civilized Tribes"
 - i. Agrarian Tribes of the South
 - ii. The Cherokee
 - iii. Removal Act
 - iv. Supreme Court vs. Jackson
 - v. Cherokee Resistance

d. Trail of Tears

- i. Cherokee Removal
- ii. "Indian Territory"
- iii. Conditions and Casualties
- iv. The Seminole War

e. The Meaning of Removal

- i. Reservations
- ii. Alternatives to Removal
- 4. Jackson and The Bank War
 - a. Opposition to Concentrated Power

b. Biddle's Institution

- i. Nicholas Biddle
- ii. Hard and Soft Money
- iii. Jackson's position and Biddle's corruption
- iv. Jackson's veto

c. The "Monster" Destroyed

- i. Removal of Government Deposits
- ii. Biddle's response
- iii. Jackson victorious
- d. The Taney Court
 - i. Roger B. Taney vs. John Marshall
 - ii. Charles River Bridge v. Warren Bridge
- 5. The Changing Face of American Politics
 - a. Democrats and Whigs
 - i. Birth of the Whig Party
 - ii. Democrats' Emphasis on Opportunity
 - iii. Whigs' Call for Economic Union
 - iv. Anti-Masons
 - v. Cultural Issues

- vi. The "Great Triumvirate"
- vii. Clay's "American System"
- viii. The Election of 1836

b. Van Buren and the Panic of 1837

- i. 1836 Economic Boom
- ii. Distribution Act
- iii. Jackson's "Specie Circular"
- iv. Panic of 1837
- v. Independent Treasury

c. The Log Cabin Campaign

- i. William Henry Harrison
- ii. New Techniques of Political Campaigning

d. The Frustration of the Whigs

- i. Harrison's death and President Tyler
- ii. Whigs Break with Tyler
- e. Whig Diplomacy
 - i. The Caroline Affair

- ii. Aroostook War
- iii. The Creole
- iv. Webster-Ashburton Treaty
- v. Treaty of Wang Hya