Unit 7 Exam – Extra Credit

The following questions relate to three separate videos – all found on the YouTube channel, The Great War. Your answers need to be hand-written, in PEN, and be no less than two sentences. If you write too little, off topic or copy someone else's answers you will not receive any extra credit.

Tinderbox Europe – From Balkan Troubles to WWI

- Why were the Balkans such a mess by 1914?

- What was Austria-Hungary's greatest mistake in its actions in the Balkans?

A Shot That Changed the World – The Assassination of Franz Ferdinand

- Is it fair to place responsibility for the outbreak of World War I on Gavrilo Princip? Why or why not?

- If Franz Ferdinand had not been killed, do you believe that Europe would have still gone to war? Explain.

The Outbreak of WWI – How Europe Spiraled Into the Great War

- What was the most important reason for the sudden commitment to war by all of Europe's major nations in the summer of 1914?

- Do you believe that there could be a repeat of the outbreak of WWI in the modern world? Explain.
